

Christie Landwehr, Certified Horsemanship Assn., Aurora, CO

Christy Landwehr has been active in the horse industry for over 25 years. Hunter/jumper, dressage, native costume, side saddle, western pleasure, hunter pleasure, barrel racing, endurance riding and saddle seat equitation are just some of the disciplines Christy has competed in at the local, regional and national levels. She has been teaching children and adults how to ride for over 20 years. Christy is a Master Level Riding Instructor through the Certified Horsemanship Association (CHA) www.CHA-ahse.org and has taught students in 4-H and Pony Club. She is the Past President of the American Youth Horse Council (AYHC) www.AYHC.com and an AQHA Professional Horseman www.AQHA.com. She also founded, competed on and coached the University of Colorado at Boulder Intercollegiate Horse Show Association equestrian team. She is a member of the Aurora Horsemen's Association and puts on shows for the club and is a member of Colorado Horse Council.

With an undergraduate degree in public relations and speech communication from California State University Fullerton and a masters degree in mass communication and journalism from University of Colorado at Boulder, Christy has vast experience in marketing and sales. She was the Sponsorship and Youth Programs Manager for the Arabian Horse Association, a trainer for Skill Path Seminars, and the Development Director for The Urban Farm that works with at-risk youth in Denver.

Currently, she is the CEO for the Certified Horsemanship Association. She is also a clinic instructor and site accreditor for the organization. Christy lives on a 10 acre horse ranch in Aurora, Colorado with her husband – John, her two sons – Sean (5) and Kyle (3), two horses – AQHA mare Zips Silver Sis and APHC gelding Chip Off the Dot and a dog and cat.

Christy will conduct seminars and clinics all three days during the MHC Horse Expo. Consult the schedule for exact times and titles. Also, Christy will be available throughout the Expo at the CHA booth, #414, in the trade show area.
