

Colleen Pace, Davison, MI

Colleen Pace is a 1989 graduate of the University of Michigan-Flint's School of Management. She has owned and operated novice level programs, offering instruction to non-horse-owning beginners, in Owosso and Davison for 32 years; and is the innovator and owner of The American Association of Riding Schools®. The AARS, a national business support program for novice level riding schools, garnered the 'best new product' award from the Western and English Trade Association. Colleen is President of the American Association of Riding Schools, Inc., and owner of Riverbank Farm, Davison, Michigan.

Natalie Ranchuk, South Rockwood, MI

Natalie Ranchuk is a 2006 graduate of Michigan State University's Horse Management program. Her new stable, Natural Beginnings Riding Lessons, is a member of the American Association of Riding Schools.

Colleen and Natalies' program, Owning Your First Small Business - A Question and Answer Forum, will take place on Friday afternoon, in Seminar Room A, from 5:15 to 6:15 p.m.