

Dan Grunewald, Versatility Training and Clinics, Jefferson, WI

Dan Grunewald is committed to helping the rider and horse develop as a team. Through this interaction, you will be amazed at the difference.

As a judge, Dan believes in evaluating the ability of the horse and rider as a “Complete Package”. He is committed to working with all breeds of horses and all levels of riders. Dan’s high-energy information packed clinics focus on helping each rider develop a wonderful working relationship with their horse to get them into the winner’s circle.

Dan has earned many championships, competing in IBHA and Wisconsin Buckskin Assn. events. He is the trainer of multiple state, futurity and National World exhibitors in Buckskin events. Dan also is president of the Wisconsin Open Horse Show Association, and has twice been nominated as WSHC Judge of the Year.

In the past, Dan has been a speaker at the American Youth Horse Council meeting in South Carolina, and clinician at Columbian, MO; the Arkansas Horse Fair, Midwest Horse Fair, Albuquerque, NM Horse Expo, Northern Illinois Horse Fair and the North Dakota Horse Fair.

Dan will appear on Friday, March 7, Round Pen/Auditorium, 11:30-12:30 (Choosing the Right Horse for the Right Rider); Saturday, March 8, Round Pen/Auditorium, 10:00-11:00 a.m. (Perfecting Showmanship); and Sunday, March 9, Main Arena, 10:45-11:45 a.m. (How to Find More Collection in Your Horse).

Additional information about Dan is available on his website, www.dangrunewald.com.